

Australian Network for
Plant Conservation Inc

APCC 12
12th Australasian Plant
Conservation Conference 2018

Centre for Australian
National Biodiversity Research

12th Australasian Plant Conservation Conference

'Moving house - a new age for plant translocation and restoration'

CSIRO Discovery Centre, Canberra
12 - 16 November 2018

www.anpc.asn.au/conferences/2018

Call for Abstracts extended to 24 August!
Early-bird registrations now close 7 September

3 travel grants valued at $250 each are available for eligible PhD students submitting abstracts!

ANPC members receive discounts on the conference registration fees!

Download the APCC12 Sponsorship Prospectus here

http://www.anpc.asn.au/sites/default/files/APCC12\_Sponsorship\_prospectus.pdf

Be a part of this premier event and help contribute to the conservation of Australia's unique plants!

The wide range of sponsorship options available are summarised below:

Sponsorship level	$
Gold	10,000
Silver	5,000
Bronze	2,500
Plenary Speaker	2,000
Conference Dinner	1,500
Field Trip	1,500
Workshop	1,500

Sponsorship level	$
Welcome Reception/Poster Session	1,000
Trade Stall	1,000
Speaker	750
Lunch or Morning/Afternoon Tea	500
Advertising in Conference Proceedings	400
Prize donations	200
Conference Bag Insert	100

Threatened plants from the ACT region all growing at the Australian National Botanic Gardens in Canberra: Swainsona recta (Small purple pea) – Lily Berry;
Rutidosia leptorrhynchoides (Button Wrinkewort) – Jo Lynch; Calotis glandulosa (Mauve Burr-daisy) – Lily Berry.